"You make me so very happy ..."

There were moods here this year. Moods that affected every student here. Half of them didn't know what moods were doing to them. Moods of confusion and understanding as students read their mod schedules. Moods of concern as a class awaits the results of a test. Moods of joy as Cindy Boyers was crowned Homecoming queen. These are a few of the moods that affected the West Leyden student body and faculty. This book is dedicated to the nearly 2000 students and hundred faculty members who made these moods of '69-'70.

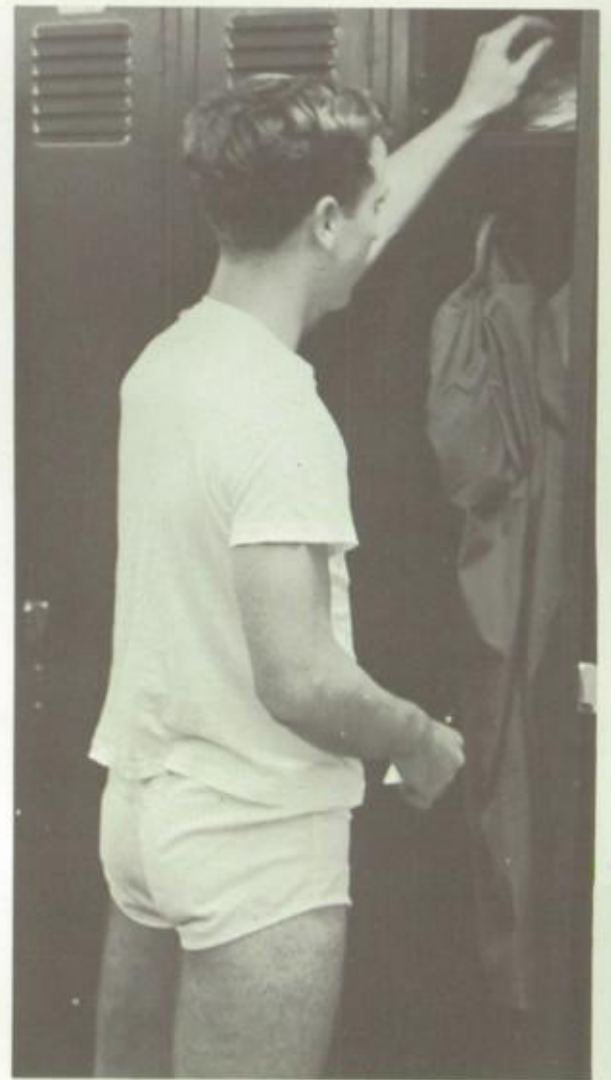

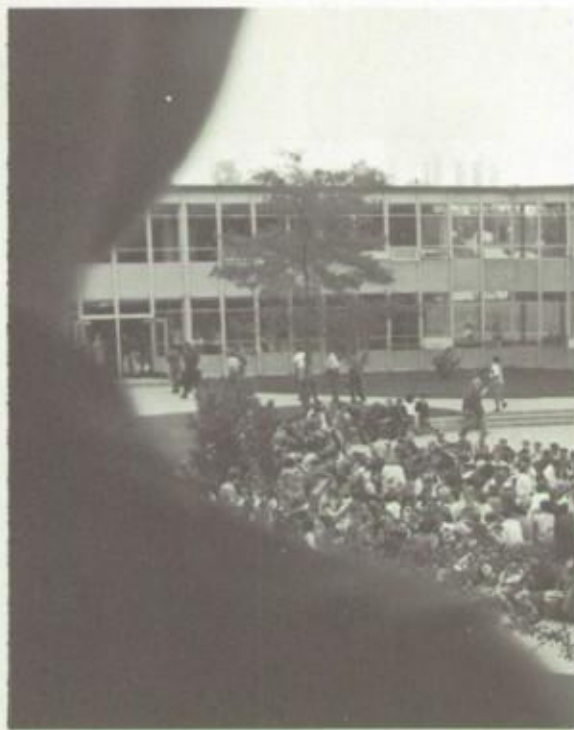

"Margaret, are you grieving

Large English Groups Successful

According to Mr. Robert Tweed, chairman of the English department, a new book, "Outlooks in Literature," was used by the freshmen. All students were scheduled for large group English classes where lectures were given and then into small groups for further discussion. This enabled all students to benefit from one lecture. The development of the English-Social Studies Resource Center gave students further opportunity to work on English or to have discussions with teachers.

Individual Help in Science Stimulates Interest

A new book in chemistry increased student interest in questioning and exploring the world we live in. The 750 students in the science department took courses ranging from biology to physics. Fieldtrips to science fairs and the development of the Math-Science Resource Center improved learning opportunities for students. Team teaching improved the quality of classroom presentations. In modular scheduling the student received more individual help and was able to work on more independent projects.

New teams of teachers taught in American History and world history. Speakers were heard, such as Haythem and Hani Rabi on the Arab-Israli situation. Language Classes Get New Books

A new teacher, Mrs. Rapp, was introduced to the language department this year, bringing the total amount of language teachers up to eight. New textbooks were given to the French I and German I classes this year, and small conversation and composition groups were formed for Spanish III and IV students. Among the scheduled activities were the Mexico trip during spring vacation, a field trip to the Art Institute by Spanish IV, and the annual visits to Spanish, French, and German restaurants by the various clubs. Department head Donald Allison said modular scheduling gave "more meat" to the courses.

Individuals Express Talent in Art And Music

The music department, headed by Mr. Roth, instructed 305 students. The choir, orchestra, and band performed at concerts given in the fall and spring. Students from these groups composed the stage band, Knights and Gals, Girls Ensemble, and Pep Band, which performed at the V-Show, basketball games, assemblies, and other activities throughout the school year.

The art department, headed by Mr. Sowizdal, consisted of 360 students. Ceramics classes used a new textbook A Potter's Handbook and displayed a collection of sculpture pieces throughout the building. Art classes used tele-lecture facilities to interview professional artists. All students were exposed to different types of art in a faculty art show and traveling displays.

Music and art gave the individual a chance to express himself and his moods in something other than writing and speaking.

In Memoriam

The death of Mr. Sid Gerenstein in June, 1969, was a great loss to his family, his friends, his associates, and all the students of West Leyden. Thirteen of his twenty-one years in public education were spent in the Leyden district, most of them at West. His interest in and fondness for students was apparent in his regret at having to give up coaching on assuming the duties of athletic director. In spite of his administrative position he was familiar to students and his opinions were respected. We present this page in memory of a fine man and teacher.

Guidance Reports Schedule Changes More Complex

The guidance department, headed by Warren Reitzel, consisted of eight counselors. According to Mr. Reitzel, making schedule changes was much more complex this year under modular scheduling.

Moods of Mods

West Leyden has completed a successful year under modular scheduling. What is modular scheduling? By now both students and faculty should know.

Under the traditional schedule, the day was divided into six 55 minute periods. Each course met every day at the same time in the same classroom with the same teacher. In modular scheduling the school day is divided into 24 modules each lasting 20 minutes. This enables class length to be varied. Classes meet from one to five times a week, for different lengths of time, depending upon the course and its objective.

The formation of large groups gave students the opportunity to benefit from the same lecture. In small groups the students discussed the subject in more detail. Under modular scheduling, pupils and teachers were able to use unstructured time for individual help in areas of difficulty. New learning centers, the English-Social Studies Resource Center, the Math-Science Resource Center, and open labs, were available for use by students for individual and group projects. Students gained responsibility learning how to utilize their unstructured time to their advantage.

With the introduction of modular scheduling came many new moods, first of confusion, then of understanding- What is a modular schedule? What mod is this? Also moods of quiet discovery between teachers and students in small group seminars. And there were also the moods that can be found anywhere, the serious moods of students as they strive to achieve academic and personal excellence.

Student Council Had Active Year

By far the most active organization at West Leyden is the Student Council. Few students are aware of the many hours of planning and hard work their projects and activities require. Members work with the administration to solve student problems and complaints and try to explain administrative policies and actions to students.

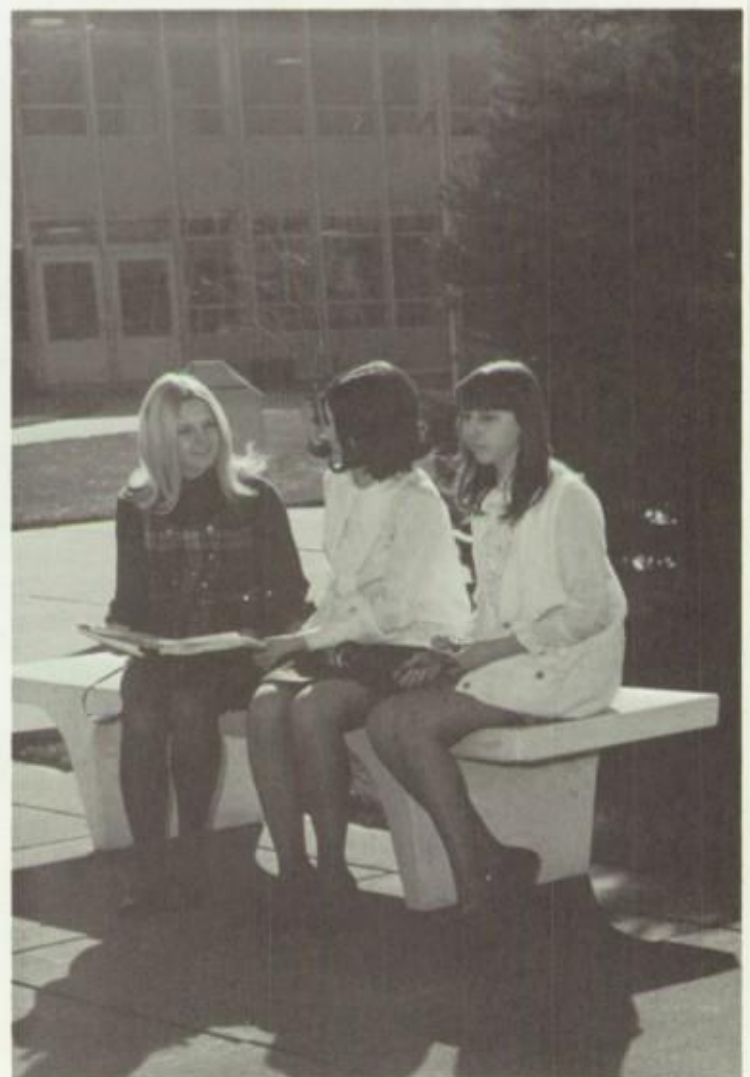

Council's first major project was Homecoming Weekend. All of the events on that busy weekend require Council planning and organization. This year President G. Obrzut won administrative approval and student cooperation for a return of the traditional bonfire. Unfortunately, rain canceled this event.

April 27 to May 1 was the annual Student Council Week. This included Teacher and Senior Appreciation Days, Administration Exchange Day, Slave Day, and a Junior Olympics. There was also the annual concert and dance, featuring the Buckingham and the Mauds. This year, the Sophomore and Junior classes joined Student Council in sponsoring the concert.

The Council consists of six representatives from each class and four officers. Election of representatives, the Freshman Mixer, and planning some assemblies were some of Council's other projects. During the entire year, the Council worked and cooperated with other schools in the Des Plaines Valley Conference.

Sunny Italy Comes to West Leyden

Sunny Italy came to West Leyden via pretty Delia De-Agnostini, our eighth foreign exchange student. Although she and her American family, the Hornbecks, only had pictures of each other, they managed to meet at O'Hare Airport last August. Delia enjoyed meeting new people, learning American customs and slang, and eating American foods, especially cheeseburgers. Modular scheduling was another new experience for Delia. In Genoa, her hometown, classes are held for five continuous hours a day, six days a week. Both Delia and West Leydenites had many fond memories of each other when they parted at the end of the year.

AFS Carries on Traditions

As one of West Leyden's most active groups, American Field Service had a full calendar of traditional activities. Early in the year was a welcoming party for our foreign exchange student, pretty Delia deAgnostini. Next, members hosted the Hospitality Weekend. Exchange students from area schools were invited to spend the weekend with West Leyden students. Friday they toured the school. Saturday began with a tour of downtown Chicago and a visit to the Museum of Science and Industry and ended with a hayride.

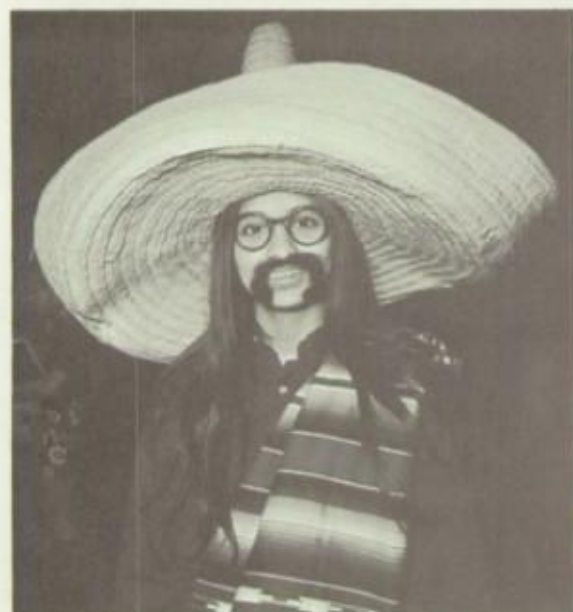

Just before Christmas, members sold candy canes. Charlie Brown Day is a favorite tradition at West Leyden. AFS sold special tags. Anyone wearing this tag on Charlie Brown Day could wear sloppy, unusual, or even extraordinary outfits. West Leydenites outdid each other in their ingenuity. The money AFS members earn is used to bring a foreign exchange student to West Leyden each year.

Art Club

For the creative students at West Leyden, Art Club was a welcome addition to the club scene. Meetings were spent designing and making Christmas cards for the faculty and creating showcase displays. They also worked on individual projects using various art mediums. Several visits were made to the Chicago Art Institute.

Campus Life

Formerly named "Youth for Christ," the Campus Life Club was sponsored by Mrs. Hollibaugh and Mrs. Karr. Its main purpose is to have fun and to show what Christ can mean in the life of a teenager. The club sponsored several parties and sales to earn money.

MHO Offers Friendship

This year M.H.O. had two new sponsors, Miss Zedelmaier and Mr. Lewinski. With their leadership and the help of the officers and President Linda Gates, the membership soared from 25 to 100. Through their monthly visits to Illinois State Hospital, the members offered their friendship to needy people. This year they had their annual gas day and sold candy to raise money for their Christmas and Easter projects. They talk with, listen to, and dance with patients.

Music for Many Moods

The Concert Band is a many sided group that provides music for various occasions. There is the lively mood of marches at football games and the serious mood of graduation, with a mixture of current and classical music at concerts in between. The Band marched at football games and the Homecoming Parade, entertained at pep assemblies and basketball games, and performed at the annual Winter and Spring Concerts. The 75 members also represented West Leyden at Northwestern University's High School Band Day for the tenth straight year.

Choir Makes Record

Knights 'n Gals is a vocal group made up of Choir members, although they work on their numbers outside of class. They performed at the V show and at concerts throughout the year.

Work on Christmas music began early for the Choir this year. They recorded their traditional Christmas carols in November and sold the records during December. Many hours of practice were evident as the Choir performed at its concerts and at the Museum of Science and Industry. Choir members also participated in the annual musical.

Drill Team and Majorettes

The Drill Team was better organized this year than in the past. They joined the Marching Band in parades and presented colors at football games.

Providing extra flash and sparkle at parades and football games were the West Leyden Majorettes. Twirling hoops, flags, and fire, in addition to their regular batons, added a great deal of interest to their routines. This year the girls got new uniforms and also worked under a teacher. LEFT TO RIGHT: N. Hutter, A. Stulik, N. Atkins, J. Hamilton, J. Surak.

Around the World

West Leyden students get to know foreign cultures through the activities of the three language clubs. Members sample foreign foods at restaurants and view foreign language movies. Annual Easter vacation trips to Mexico and bi-annual trips to Quebec offer students an exciting chance to expand their horizons.

Spanish Club

This club's active year started with joining the other language clubs in building a Homecoming float. Money raising came next with a dance and the sale of small wooden figures. With this money the club sponsored a student teacher from Spain and also made a donation to Casa Central, a Spanish social agency. A Christmas party, complete with a gift-filled piñata, and a trip to Casa del Sol restaurant were also part of their activities.

French Club

French Club promotes interest in the French language and people and in their customs. They made their annual visit to a French restaurant. They also joined in making the language clubs' float for Homecoming. A dance was their major money-making activity.

German Club

German Club members had an especially active year. In the fall, they joined the Oktoberfest celebration in Forest Park. Their annual Christmas party ended with a hayride this year. Later in the year they attended a Faschingsball (Mardi Gras) held by Downers Grove South's German Club. They also made their annual trip to a German restaurant and movie and held a dance.

L Club

The L Club consists of our Fighting Knights who have earned their major L in battle on the football field, track, wrestling mats, baseball diamond and all other sports areas at West Leyden. The senior members escorted our Mum Arbor, Court, and Queen at Homecoming. In the spring they sponsored the L Club Jamboree and they ended the year with the awards banquet at which the outstanding athletes were honored.

Modern Books Discussion Club

Members of the MBDC enjoyed another year of reading and discussing current, controversial books. Fathers and Sons, Shoes of the Fisherman, and The Greek Passion were among the monthly selections. Meetings are spent discussing the book and selecting the next book to be read. After initial comments, members discuss the ideas and style of the book and the author's purpose.

Selling peanuts on the Kiwanis Peanut Day was only one activity of the Key Club. Membership more than doubled and under the direction of their sponsor, Mr. Vaughn, members collected soap for Dixon State Hospital and participated in the annual Pancake Day. The club is affiliated with the Northlake Kiwanis.

S.S.S. Increases Activities

During lunch and Early Bird, The West Leyden disc jockeys, under the direction of Mr. Swetin devoted their open mods to playing music for the student body. This year the D.J.'s became better established and more active. They sold big pretzels during the year and supplied pleasing music at the Sports Nights and dances. All money they made went to buying new and better records for the club.

Exploring the vast field of social studies is the purpose of the Social Studies Seminar. Members seek to understand various contemporary problems through speeches and discussions. Two speakers were Mr. Rosenberg, who spoke on public opinion, and Mr. Allison, who showed slides from his recent trip to Spain.

Meetings were spent making arrangements for the trips, planning and preparing experiments to be carried out in the field and evaluating the data gathered. Projects included work with mapping, photography, geology, conservation and a planetarium.

Lancer Wins NSPA First Place

The school newspaper, the LANCER, started what became a busy year with more wide, in-depth news coverage of the many clubs, organizations and departments in the school. With a staff of about twenty, the paper set forth towards better representation of the students and administration. The paper has also shown a new spark of more feature material in its columns. The sports page has also turned to a more interesting approach to sports news, instead of straight facts and figures and sports scores.

Editors Try New Ideas

SHIELD editors put in many hours of work arranging picture-taking, writing copy, drawing layouts, and directing their staffs. They spent a week at the Kent University Press Institute learning such new ideas as art conversion, which was used on the division pages, and modern layouts. Some staff members attended the National Scholastic Press Association conference during Thanksgiving vacation. Editors tried to hold their own workshops for staff so they would know more about yearbook production.

Scorers

Four groups of girls were organized again this year to aid some of West Leyden's teams. The Gymnastic Scorers added the points of each gymnast and flashed these scores on cards. Swim Timers had to be able to use a stop watch with accuracy, since the races they timed were won by tenths of a second. Wrestling Boosters timed bouts and marked up points. They also cheered our Knights on to victory. Track Timers helped to keep records at track meets. All of these groups made locker signs for their teams before meets.

Pep 'N' Power

"We've got the pep and we've got the power . . ." Pep 'N' Power, the new Pep Club, supplied plenty of both at games this year. Guys were invited to join to provide extra power. Their blue and gold uniforms were seen in large numbers in the halls on Fridays before games and at the games. Members made large paper hoops for the team to run through before football and basketball games as well as displaying and encouraging school spirit.

The cheerleaders worked hard this year at promoting school spirit and sportsmanship at football and basketball games and assemblies. They met twice a week to plan and practice cheers. They also made locker signs for all the athletes before games. To raise money for new uniforms, the girls sold poster pictures and held a sports night.

As in previous years, the Leyden Girls Association, sponsored by Mrs. Burzinski, sold mums at Homecoming, gave teachers' teas in the fall and spring, and acted as hostesses at open house and parents' nights. In addition to these services, the girls held the annual Turnabout Dance and got together to talk, exchange ideas, and have fun.

Girls Dance, Hold Tournaments

Learning the techniques of modern dance and composing dances are the goals of Orchesis. Tryouts were held in September and in January. Members performed at the V-Show and at the dance they sponsored, and they held a concert in the spring. Field trips to other dance concerts were also made.

After school sports for all girls were again sponsored by Girls' Intramurals. Sponsored by Mrs. Burzinski and directed by senior Karen Judge, this group held tournaments in basketball, bowling, volleyball, and other sports. Equipment for their games and tournament awards were purchased with money earned from their annual dance and from their carwash.

Flashy Routines by Pom Pons

The Leydenettes, WL's Pom Pon girls, had a second successful year. They held workshops and after school practices to create and perfect their routines. Performances at football and basketball halftimes, the V show, and the pep assemblies showed their hard work. They also sold various items to promote school spirit and to pay for their uniforms. This year the girls increased their ranks by two "little Leydenettes."

Homecoming 1969

Homecoming 1969 followed the traditions of past years. Friday was the day of the Mum Arbor assembly, when the final result of the week's voting was announced. Our Homecoming Queen was Cindy Boyers. A pep assembly followed the ceremonies.

The annual V-Show was held that evening in the auditorium. Student Council President J. Obrzut's hard work brought back our traditional bonfire, but it was canceled by poor weather.

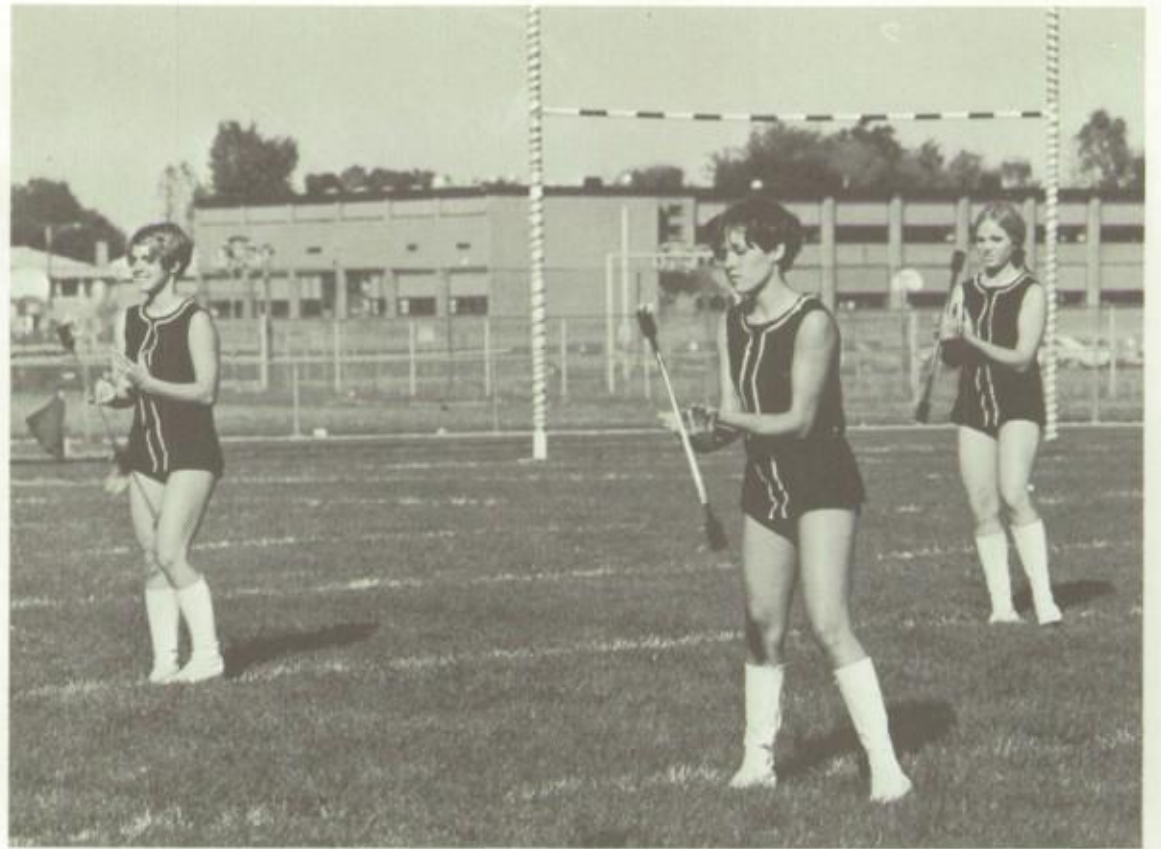

Saturday began with the parade in the morning, with its carloads of Mum Arbor girls, the colorful floats, and the Marching Band. In the afternoon the Knights put up a good fight but were defeated by the Hinsdale Hornets. The "Moments to Remember" dance Saturday evening closed a wonderful, memorable weekend.

The Odd Couple

Drama Guild's first production of this season was the smash comedy hit, The Odd Couple. The situation is uproariously funny when Felix, a guy with a mania for housekeeping, moves in with Oscar, a fun-loving fellow who couldn't care less about it. Felix is being divorced and laughs abound as his fellow poker players and the "Coo-coo" Pigeon sisters try to reconcile him to a bachelor's life.

Cockneys D. Willerth, G. Folwarski, T. Leahy, and G. Carnehl get Eliza's father (M. Bily) to the church on time.

My Fair Lady

Freddy (L. LaFayette) sings "On the Street Where You Live" to Eliza (C. Bramer).

A spectacular production of "My Fair Lady" was the annual musical. To reproduce the smash Broadway hit, the Music Department outdid itself by constructing many new sets and making elaborate 19th century costumes.

In this romantic story, Professor Henry Higgins, England's leading phoneticist, agrees to teach Eliza Doolittle, a cockney flower girl, to speak like a lady. Higgins makes his student a social success and takes all the credit for the sophistication she shows at the Embassy Ball.

Infuriated and frustrated at the unfairness of this, Eliza leaves. They both miss each other badly, and when Eliza returns, Henry proposes to her.

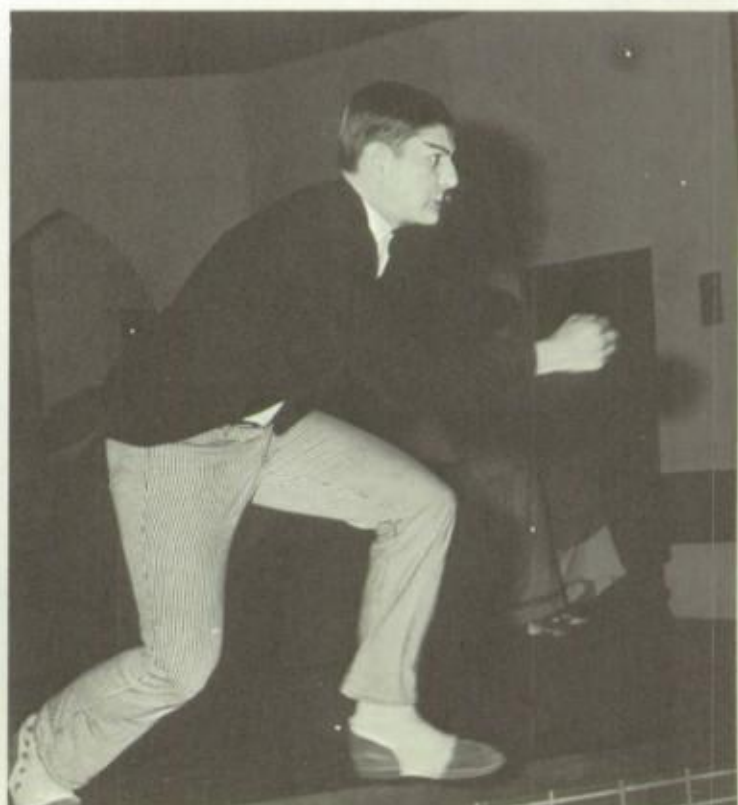

Dancing parts were open to all students. Choir students competed for singing parts and the orchestra provided the music. Students from the music, drama, and art departments worked on the other phases of production.

As Pure As The Driven Snow

The Drama Department presented a corny, old-fashioned melodrama as their spring production. "As Pure As the Driven Snow" or "A Working Girl's Secret" gave the audience a chance to hiss and boo the villain and clap for the hero. This play has the classic soap opera plot of a pure and lovely heroine who is pursued by a black-hearted villain. She falls into his evil clutches but is rescued in the nick of time by the brave and gallant hero.

Pageant of Scenes

Students from Drama III chose plays and scenes, picked casts, and directed the Pageant of Scenes. The four sets of scenes were produced free of charge to show everyone what the students had learned. The original experiment was highly successful.

In "The Imaginary Invalid", an angry miser plans to marry his daughter to a doctor so he can have a supply of remedies within the family. In "The Children's Hour", a young girl runs away from school with a shocking tale to tell her grandmother. "Of Mice and Men" is the story of two migrant workers who learn about the real meaning and purpose of life. "Charlie Brown" showed how life looks to a favorite comic strip character and his pals.

Drama Guild Has Active Year

Students interested in drama developed their talents and furthered their education in drama by membership in this organization. The ninety members produced a comedy, The Odd Couple, in the fall, the Children's Play, and a melodrama as the Spring Play. They also visited an orphanage and held a number of parties.

Forensic Groups

Clear thinking, effective arguing, and ethical persuading were practiced by the Debate Club. Members also developed a greater knowledge of important contemporary issues as they prepared for meets.

The National Forensics League, sponsored by Miss Herman, is an honorary organization for those forensic participants who have earned 24 points through competition. Among its other activities, this club sponsored a dance and an all-school assembly. In addition to the personal satisfaction and enjoyment gained, each member achieved valuable experience in public speaking skills and competition.

The Forensics Club is the team of students that represents West Leyden at contests held at various schools during the year. With the help of sponsors Miss Schmoll and Miss Herman, members improve their skills in debate, oratory, and public speaking.

Reflections 1969

"Reflections," the 1969 Prom, sponsored by the Junior class, proved to be one of the most outstanding Proms in West Leyden history. In the magnificent Grand Ballroom of Chicago's Ferrara Manor, the couples ate filet mignon for dinner, and swirled around the dance floor. The climax of the evening came when Kathy Erl was crowned Prom Queen by Sandy Johnson, the Junior Class president. Later, the couples headed for restaurants in many parts of the city for late dinners. The following day broke sunny and warm — a perfect day for the many picnics prom-goers enjoyed at their favorite parks and beaches.

This year's Frosh-Soph Cross Country team deserves a lot of praise. One of the biggest successes for the knights was the beating of East Leyden 36-23.

This year the Varsity Football Team did not live up to its great expectations.

Upon meeting Downers Grove South the gridgers tied with this team. They went on thru the rest of the season losing to various teams. Finally, the Knights shut down the Willowbrook Warriors 34-0. It was amazing that the Knights got so hot. It was frustrating that they did it at the end of the season.

A well known name in sports for the past four years here at Leyden has been John Gann, '70. Hard work has been John's story ever since he came to Leyden in '66. Sophomore year Gann was put on the Varsity Football team as a first string guard.

In spite of this year's poor Varsity Football season Gann was still known to be an excellent guard as well as linebacker as proven when John was named All-State guard.

Conference	8th place

Last year's Frosh-Soph Golf team had a very good season.

They beat East Leyden 194-198. They did, however, take an 8th in conference.

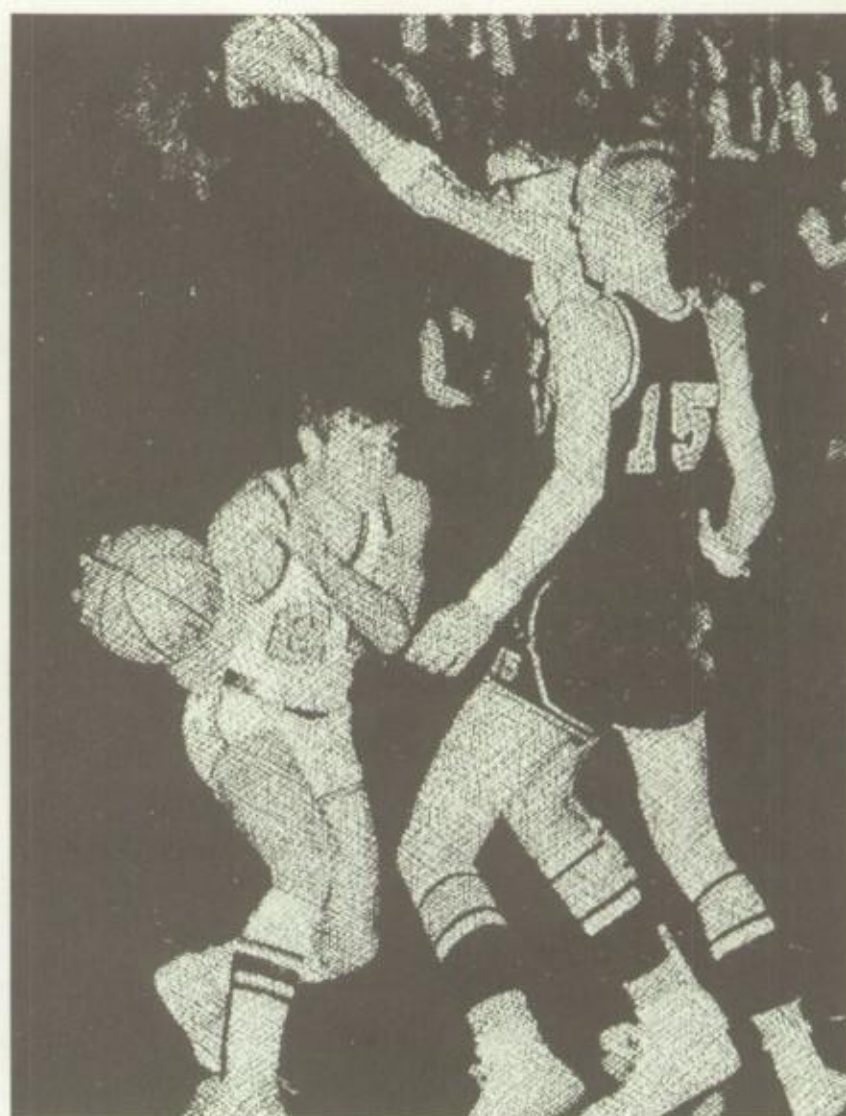

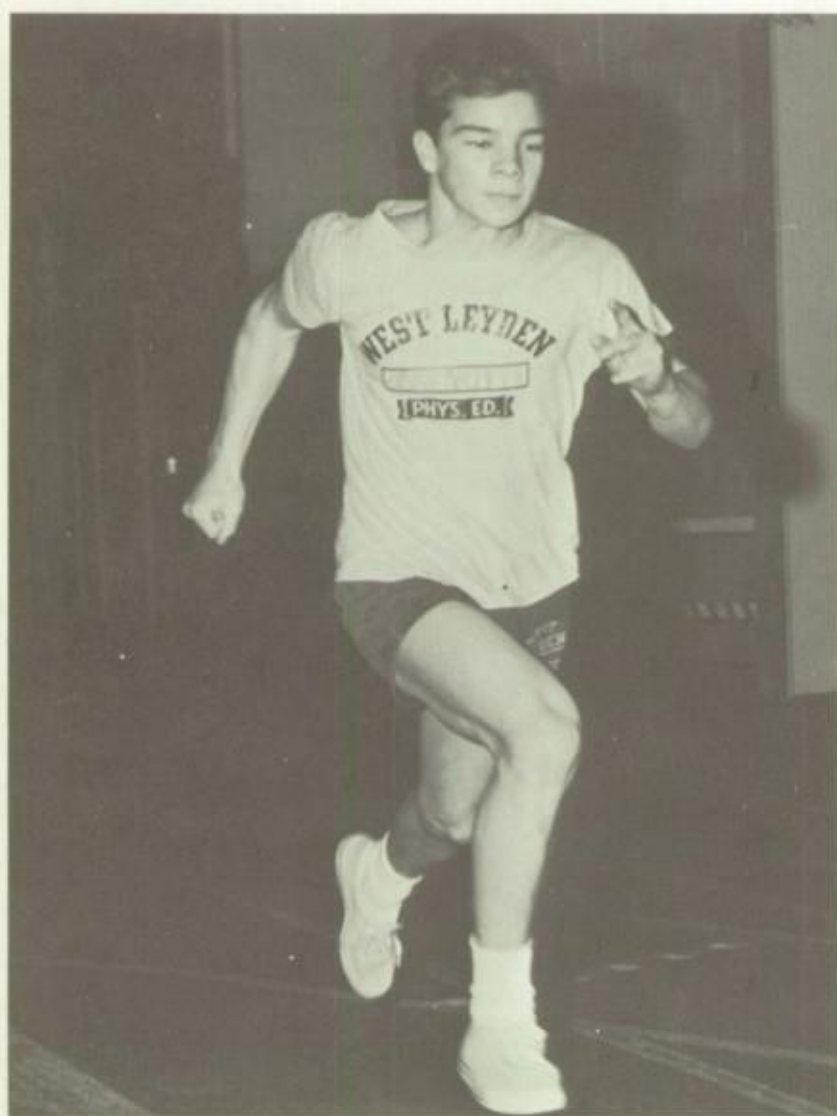

This year's team is expected to be twice as good.

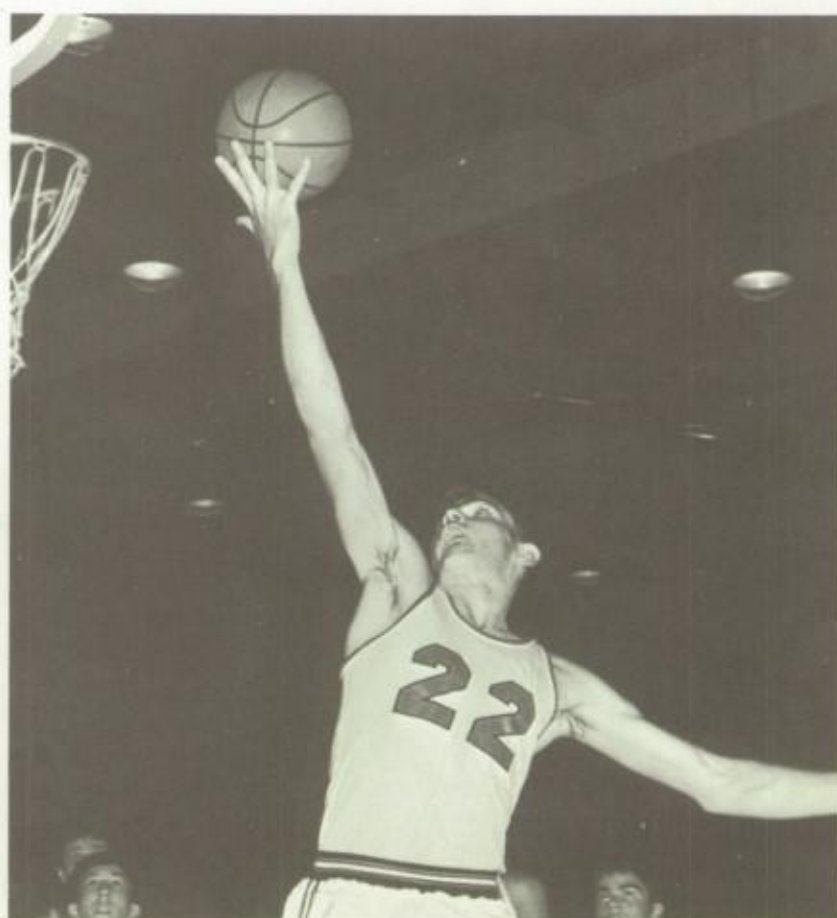

Fred Simon Team Captain takes a break after a long hard practice.

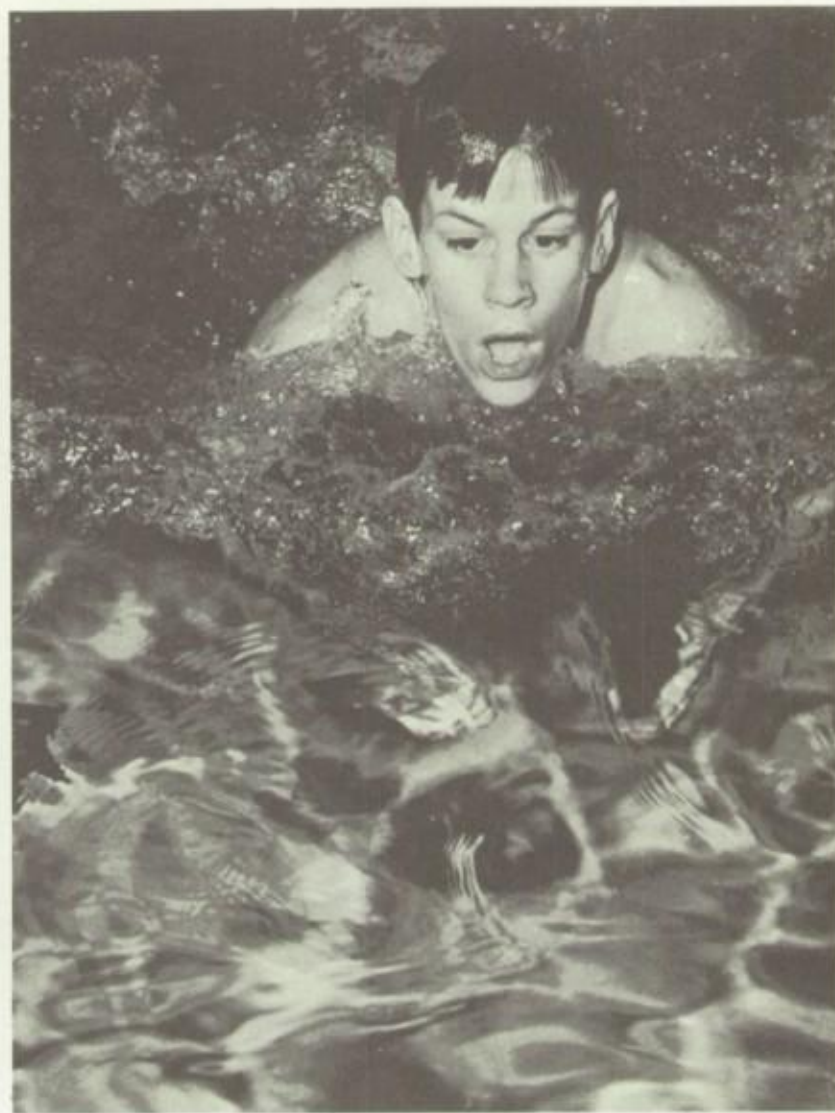

"If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

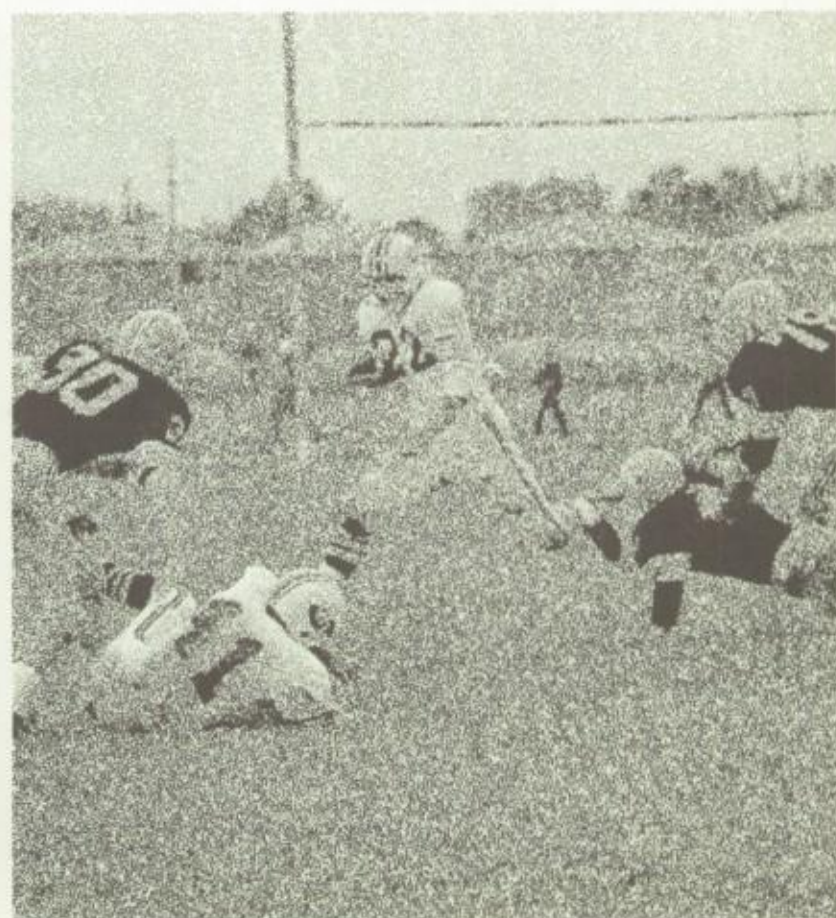

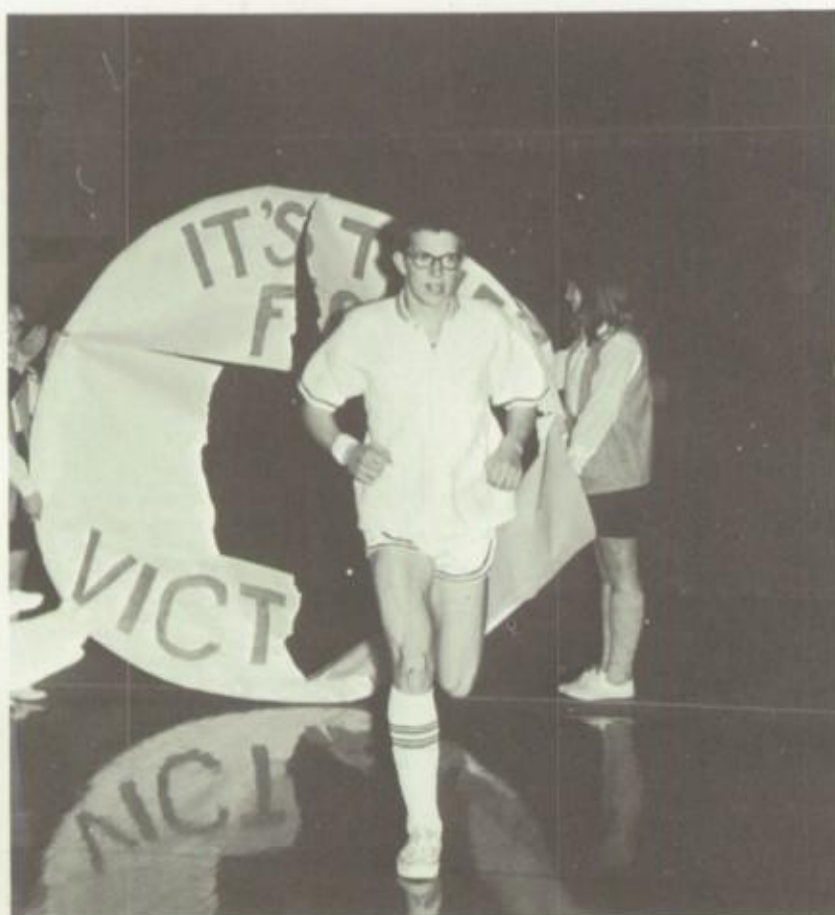

And So a Long, Hard,
Successful Year . . .

Comes to a Close.

Dear Students and Faculty of West Leyden High School,

Finishing a yearbook and looking around at the survivors, I realize I haven't been alone. Problems and decisions are now past and the help I had, not in making the decisions, but in formulating the alternatives to select from is apparent.

My thanks are extended to Mr. Bart Murphy, the American Yearbook representative, for explaining and presenting ideas and waiting while we editors listened, revised, asked and decided ... to Mr. Martin McGowan, our advisor, for clearing the way and patiently waiting while we editors argued, decided and got to work ... to Capri Studios, its photographers and staff, for taking and often rushing to us the pictures we needed ... to the personnel of West Leyden for their patience and cooperation throughout the year ... to the staff that helped crop pictures, write copy, trace layouts and generally went crazy over the index ... finally to my fellow editors for their fortitude and perseverance.

Sincerely yours,

Michael D. Almada

Michael D. Almada — Editor In Chief

. . . The Mood of Farewell . . .

So, the year is over. There are many moments that will make students remember the moods of 1969-'70.

A mood of freedom as the dress code was dropped. A mood of victory was reflected in the many great victories in wrestling as the Varsity Team took conference, in Cross Country with a tremendous season, and in Varsity Gymnastics that had the best team this year.

This was the year so many changes were made such as mod scheduling and dress code.

As teachers and students alike look back on the year 1969-'70 and the changes and accomplishments it brought, surely the mood of pleasure will be recalled.

There is still the mood of farewell. A sad one — it is an ending, but a happy one also for it is a new beginning.

... From the Shield Editors.

That was my last deadline! Editor-In-Chief and Sports Editor, Mike Almada.

Sally Czaja, Organizations and Activities Editor.

Rita Czaja, Organizations and Activities Editor, too.

Faculty and Academics Editor, Diane Doll.

Debbie Piper, Senior Editor, takes off with the fork lift.

No, it ain't Snow White. It's Underclass Editor, Linda Pinkham.
